ABBOTSFORD, BC

LOCATION

The Lower Mainland's Most Convenient Industrial Hub

Anchored in the heart of the Lower Mainland, Abbotsford is a vibrant city with a thriving economy and bustling industrial lands less than an hour's drive from Vancouver's downtown core.

With its university, regionally-serving business, hospital, diverse employment base, airport, and half of the region's population, it's no surprise Abbotsford has become a major hub of activity and a catalyst for eastward migration from Vancouver.

Abbotsford has the most diverse economy among mid-sized cities in Canada, with industrial labour comprising 30% of the City's total labour force. As the primary employment, business centre, and industrial hub of the Fraser Valley, and fast and efficient access to Vancouver, Abbotsford is a highly desirable location to invest in.
